AN APPEAL TO THE COMMITTEE ON TAX RATE FOR JACKSON CO.

The teachers of Jackson county have just closed their annual session. During this meeting there was much discussion concerning the shortage of teachers, the short school term and the woeful condition in general of the schools of the county. The only logical conclusion that could be reached, it mattered not from what angle the discussion came, was the lack of funds provided for the use of schools. Therefore, the teachers of this county have prepared a petition and in a body, signed their names to this petition, asking you, who have the power to remedy this appalling condition, to levy a school tax sufficient to run the schools of Jackson county at least seven months in the year, and to pay the teachers a salary sufficient to retain the best teaching force in the county and stop this out-flow, which is carrying the best teachers out of the county to more remunerative fields, or driving them to seek other employment of a greater compensation.

Four or five years ago there were in Jackson county more teachers than there were schools. Two years ago there was a shortage of ten to twelve. One year ago of sixteen to twenty. This year Supt. W. L. Dixon tells us there are from twenty to twenty-five short in this county alone. Statisticians tell us there are one hundred thousand teachers short in the United States today.

This is indeed an alarming condition that confronts our nation. Many states, townships, and cities have realized this serious condition and have relieved it by levying a tax sufficient to place their school systems on a sound basis.

Iowa has a wage scale for teachers by which no teacher receives less than $100 per month, with an increase based on experience and efficiency.

Pasadena, Cal., has recently adopted a law whereby high school principals are paid from $3,600 to $4,000 per year. Principals in elementary schools are paid $2,400 to $2,700, and grade teachers from $1,000 to $1,500 per year.

New Port News, Virginia, pays her elementary teachers from $800 to $1,600. High School teachers from $1,200 to $2,000.

Last year the people of Houston, Texas, by a vote of four to one voted an additional revenue of $250,000 for school purposes alone. This the Supt. of its schools tells us will enable them to pay grade teachers from $850 to $1,500 per year.

Saint Paul, Minn., has adopted a new school salary by which High School teachers receive from $1,500 to $2,100 per year, and grade teachers from $1,000 to $1,500.

Only a few of the progressive states and cities have been cited to show the trend of public sentiment in favor of a more adequate and just wage for teachers. Many others could be mentioned.

I find that taxes on all things have been doubled, tripled and in many instances quadrupled, during the last four years. Yet, school taxes have scarcely held their own.

There is at present a great wave of enthusiasm spreading over the country in favor of good roads, and indeed this is commendable, and the people have been generous in their support of the same. But, I believe with Supt. R. L. Jones of Chattanooga, that, "An educated man standing knee-deep in mud is a greater asset to the country, than an ignoramus riding on a concrete road."

I do not make this appeal from a personal, or teacher's standpoint, but, from the standpoint of the child and the good of the county. For, I do not believe that there is hardly a teacher in Jackson county but who could secure employment in other fields in which they would receive better pay and which would be less exacting. A thing that many of them have already done, and a thing that many more will soon do, if conditions are not materially bettered.

We are told by every logical thinking person that the only hope of the country lies in the education of its boys and girls of today. Then, what are you going to do? It is for you to say whether or not we shall have seven or more months of school this year in Jackson county, or just drift on like we have been from bad to worse.

John Johnson,
Haydenburg, Tenn.
July 12, 1920.

STRAYED—From my place on Sunday June 20th, one small red hound dog with scar on right hip and flank. Aliberal reward is offered for his return. Any information as to his whereabouts will be greatly appreciated. Fowler Taylor, Whitleyville.

Gailbreath--Smith.

A wedding of surprise and much interest was that of Miss Agnes Smith and Bob Taylor Gailbreath, which was solemnized Sunday afternoon, July 11th, while they were seated in a buggy in front of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reeves. The ceremony was performed by Esq. R. A. Montgomery, in the presence of a limited number of relatives of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Smith, of R-3, and is one of Jackson County's most attractive and accomplished young ladies.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Sarah Gailbreath, of near Flynn's Lick, and is a prosperous young farmer. They will reside on the farm with his mother.

We extend our best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

Schools Open July 26.

The teachers of the county are hereby notified that the County Board of Education at its regular meeting July 10 decided that the public schools of Jackson county would open Monday, July 26.
